

Sacred Harvest Festival Song Book - 2007

We are Your People

Chorus: We are your people, join us (4X)

We are the old ones, join us
We are the young ones, join us
We are the wild ones, join us
We are your people, join us.

We Are Light

by Spiral Rhythm

We light the sacred fire
Join hands watch smoke do spires,
Into the sky
Till it spreads before the wind

Sweet voices lift in song
Make magic all night long
The weaving's strong
..And the circle's born again

All the world and its disharmony (pause)
Fall away into the Void (pause)
We are standing on creation's shore (pause)
Many sing as just one voice

We are life (pause)
We are love (pause)
We are the pure radiance (pause)
Of all that's Goddess-touched

We are light (pause)
I feel my soul take flight
On wings of fire light
I'll touch the stars
-On this Goddess holy night-
We dance and sway as one
Our hearts beat with the drum
The transformatlon comes
And we finally touch the Light

All the world and its disharmony (pause)

Fall away into the Void (Pause)
We are standing on creation's shore (pause)
Many sing as just one voice

We are life (pause)
We are love (pause)
We are the pure radiance (pause)
Of all that's Goddess-touched
We are life (pause)
We are love (pause)
We are the pure radiance (pause)
Of all that's Goddess touched

-We are light-

Fire, Sacred Fire

Fire, sacred fire, burning through the night.
Come to me in my dream time, bringing visions of light.
Circle round, spiral down, to these arms open wide.
Healing light, burning bright, dry these tears that I've cried.

We Are One

We are walking in the light now
Weaving patterns with our love now
Where peace and balance abide

Sacred mysteries of the flame now
Burning bright from within
Choirs of celestial voices
Whispering on the wind

We are one... one heart beating
We are one... we sing
We are one... Our voices repeating
Oh, it's now we are one
Oh, it's now we are one

We are dancing in the light now
Circling round and round
Sweetly singing of this love now

A voice of truth resounds
Sacred mysteries of the flame now
Burning in your heart
Choirs of celestial voices
Singing with one heart

We are one... one heart beating
We are one... we sing
We are one... Together repeating
Oh, it's now we are one
Oh, it's now we are one

(repeat)

All My Relations

All my relations, I am one with you.
And all that you teach me, I give thanks to you.
With my heart I listen as I pray.
I know you are with me, guiding my way.

Four legged, winged ones, creatures great and small.
In humble honor, I will stand tall.
Walking straight the path of harmony.
All my relations, come walk with me.

Fur & Feather

by Pat Taylor

Fur & Feather & Scale & Skin Different without but the same within.
Many of body but one of soul
Through all creatures
are the gods made whole.
